GPS POSITIONS OBTAINED FROM PSEUDORANGE EQUATION SYSTEM

J. Martusewicz

Warsaw University of Technology (Contact Email J.martusewicz@gik.pw.edu.pl)

The general solution of nonlinear satellite pseudorange equation system has been presented. It has been proved that computation of the position does not require either knowledge of the light speed, occurring in pseudorange measurements, or determination of approximate coordinates. The general solution allows one to obtain all possible solutions including complex conjugate positions.